

Mario Hernández

Mario A. Hernandez was born in the state of Hidalgo, Mexico, and since the age of two has resided in the East Los Angeles and Boyle Heights area. Hernandez is a mix-media artist who is moved by Mesoamerican Art, and he is also a museum educator who now serves part of the Marketing Team at the LA Plaza de Cultura y Artes Museum, and worked previously, at the Vincent Price Art Museum as a tour guide. Hernandez has received a trio of Associate of Arts degrees from East Los Angeles College: In Art History, Studio Art, and Arts Graphic Communication. Hernandez currently resides in City Terrace, East Los Angeles where he continues to create multi mix-media art using various methods.